SECUCC Annual Meeting

Piedmont College

This past week I had the privilege to worship with the United Church of Huntsville, Huntsville, AL. The newly ordained Rev. Edward Cof led worship, preached, and celebrated communion. It was a joyous time in the life of this congregation. Also, I was able to present to Eddie his ordination certificate. Yes, you may be thinking, "Why didn't he receive his certificate when he was ordained?" Well, the answer is that in the confusion that was my beginning my ministry among you, we, in the office, forgot to order it in time. So, we got to have another celebration!

This experience reminds me so much of our life together. We try, we plan, we organize and sometimes it just doesn't work out. The good news in all of this is that God takes our foibles and turns them into beautiful occasions of grace. I was able to enjoy meeting this wonderful congregation, worship with them, and hear stories about the building and stained glass window. For these blessings and others, I will happily be forgetful at times.

Blessings and peace,
Marie

Prayer List

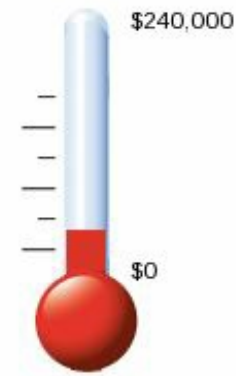

We are continuing the process of praying for authorized ministers, congregations, and ministry groups throughout 2017. We encourage you to include these prayer requests in your local church newsletter, share them with your prayer circle, and include them in your own prayers. News from Around the Conference

Going to General Synod? Let us know!

As you may know, the General Synod of the United Church of Christ will be in Baltimore this year. This event is open to everyone as a visitor. The Sunday afternoon worship service is open to all at no charge.

If you plan on going to Baltimore this year, please let Heather and Marie know. This way you can be invited to our meetings and fun stuff and feel a part of our merry band from the Southeast Conference!

Central Atlantic Conference General Synod Shelter Project

The 2016 State of Homelessness Report indicates that there were over 26,000 people homeless in the geography covered by the Central Atlantic Conference. That is a lot of people to be without shelter during the cold nights of November through March where the temperatures can drop to single digits. In keeping with the General Synod Service Project on Homelessness, the Injustice Walks, the CAC is inviting you to participate in our "Shelter Project."

We are asking attendees to make or purchase hats, gloves, scarves, and socks. In addition, we will be collecting "Ugly Quilts" (sleeping bags) or blankets including a small pillow with each. These items are to be brought to General Synod where they will be collected and distributed to the homeless throughout the Central Atlantic Conference during the winter months.

Written directions on making the quilts are available from Interim Conference Minister, Rev. Marie Bacchiocchi (mbacchiocchi@secucc.org). If you are unable to bring items with you, we are happy to accept financial donations for the purchase of these items.

Justice grant helps Alabama church open safe space to LGBT teens

The UCC national office recently highlighted the work that Open Table UCC in Mobile, AL is doing to support LGBT teens. "Open Table, with the help of an LGBT-advocacy organization in the state and a $10,000 grant from UCC Justice and Witness Ministries, is showing these teens that there is a place where they can be themselves. 'This is a safe space we provide every Saturday for LGBTQ teens in Mobile,' Sims said. 'No exceptions.' The church has been able to provide that space for the last 16 months.
